reproduction of the original the bābur nāma in english by annette susannah beveridge baburnama memoirs of babur contains the memoirs of zahir ud din muhammad babur 1483-1530 the founder of the mughal empire in india and a great great great grandson of timur it is an autobiographical work written in turki the spoken language of the andijan timurids the prose though highly persianized in its sentence structure morphology and vocabulary makes an interesting read it is a widely translated work and is part of textbooks in over 25 countries mostly in central western and southern asia it was first translated by john leyden and william erskine and later by the british orientalist scholar annette susannah beveridge 1842-1929 the book in two volumes describes babur's fluctuating fortunes as a minor ruler in central asia in which he took and lost samarkand twice and his move to kabul in 1504 there is a break in the manuscript for 12 years starting from 1508 by 1519 babur was established in kabul and from there he launched an invasion into northwestern india the final section of the book covers the years 1525 to 1529 and the establishment of the mughal empire in india where babur's descendants ruled for three centuries this book presents the persian baburnama a key primary source and the earliest record of babur's memoirs the authoritative translation uses paintings from the original work and draws on contemporary texts of the period to delve into the history of the legendary mughal ruler it provides a fresh treatment to the source material and highlights vivid accounts of the historical events of the time the paintings are divided thematically offering a unique and rare perspective into the mughal world accompanied by a detailed introduction the volume also touches upon narrative art and analyses the influence of european renaissance art on mughal painting with over 150 mughal paintings and illustrations in colour this volume will be an important sourcebook for scholars and researchers of medieval indian especially mughal history and art historians as well as connoisseurs of art and the general reader the memoirs are unique not only from the historical but also from the literary point of view the book in two volumes bound in one is a translation of babur padshah's autobiography made from original turki text it truly embodies the career of the founder of the mughal empire in india it has the rare distinction of being contemporary with the events it describes baburnamah has the complete record of babur's life 1493-1529 when babur ascended the throne at the young age of eleven to september 1529 which he had established himself as a monarch what has kept interest in it alive through some four centuries is the autobiographic presentation of an arresting personality its whole manner style and diction it reflects the personal quality of its author with the memoirs of babur began the tradition of autobiographical writings followed by some of his successors these memoirs are unique not only from the historical point of view but also from the rich literary contributions to the oriental languages the facts are as stated here i have set down of good and bad whatever is known the babur nama a journal kept by zahir uddin muhammad babur 1483 1530 the founder of the mughal empire is the earliest example of autobiographical writing in world literature and one of the finest against the turbulent backdrop of medieval history it paints a precise and vivid picture of life in central asia and afghanistan where babur ruled in samarkand and kabul and in the indian subcontinent where his dazzling military career culminated in the founding of a dynasty that lasted three centuries babur was far more than a skilled often ruthless warrior and master strategist in this abridged and edited version of a 1921 english translation of his memoirs he also emerges as a sensitive aesthete naturalist poet and lover writer journalist and internationally acclaimed middle eastern and central asian expert dilip hiro breathes new life into a unique historical document that is at once objective and intensely personal for in babur s words the truth should be reached in every matter pergament oder papier ab etwa 1100 hatten die menschen in italien ab der mitte des 13 jahrhunderts auch die einwohnerschaft nördlich des alpenkamms die wahl zwischen diesen beiden beschreibstoffen folgt man ihren expliziten Äußerungen so vertrauten sie erstaunlich lange und hartnäckig der althergebrachten tierhaut sozusagen unter der hand der schreibenden setzte sich jedoch in italien ab dem 13 im deutschsprachigen raum ab der mitte des 14 jahrhunderts der papiergebrauch in breiter front durch die vorliegende studie will diese stille durchsetzung quantitativ wie qualitativ dingfest machen zugleich geht sie auf die suche nach den ursachen weshalb sich der paper turn anders als die viel gerühmte erfindung des buchdrucks an der wende zur neuzeit aber auch als die einföhrung des papiers in der islamischen welt des mittelalters so lautlos vollzog both an official chronicle and a highly personal memoir the baburnama presents a vivid and extraordinarily detailed picture of life in central asia and india during the late fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries it is also the text most often quoted by historians and scholars of mughal india the prose of zahiruddin muhammad babur the first mughal emperor is described by its new translator wheeler thackston as frank intimate truthful and unbiased
