a priceless examination of the filmmaker's craft from the renowned director of sweet smell of success after more than twenty years in the film industry as a screenwriter, storyboard editor and director of memorable films such as the ladykillers. alexander mackendrick turned his back on hollywood and began a new career as the dean of one of the country's most demanding and influential film schools. his absolute devotion to the craft of filmmaking served as a powerful impetus to students at the california institute for the arts for almost twenty five years with a teaching style that included prodigious notes, neatly crafted storyboards and handouts containing excerpts of works by kierkegaard, aristotle and others. at the core of mackendrick's lessons lay a deceptively simple goal to teach aspiring filmmakers how to structure and write the stories they want to tell while using the devices particular to the medium of film to tell their stories effectively. in this impressive volume edited by paul cronin, the myriad materials that made mackendrick's reputation as an instructor are collected for the first time, offering a chance for professionals as well as students to discover a methodology of filmmaking that is challenging yet refreshing in its clarity. meticulously illustrated and drawing on examples from such classic films as north by northwest, citizen kane and touch.

of evil mackendrick's elegant lessons are sure to provide inspiration for a new generation of filmmakers

an analysis of the director's art and craft from one of the most revered of all film school directors mackendrick directed classic ealing comedies plus a hollywood masterpiece sweet smell of success but after retiring from film making in 1969 he spent nearly 25 years teaching his craft at the california institute of the arts in los angeles mackendrick produced hundreds of pages of handouts and sketches designed to guide his students to a finer understanding of how to write a story and then use those devices peculiar to cinema in order to tell that story as effectively as possible gathered and edited in this collection his teachings reveal that he had the talent not only to make great films but also to articulate the process with a clarity and insight that will still inspire any aspiring filmmaker from publisher description
